WHEN TIME REALLY MATTERS

"In a business world of hospitality, installers, and deadlines, time is often a critical key to success. At AH Enterprises, we align ourselves only with companies that can help us meet our customers' demanding requirements. For this reason, we call Southeastern Freight Lines' Excelerated service on all of our emergency shipments.

"Southeastern's reliability in delivering to our installers on time is so predictable that they have become a common business practice in the way we do business. When we know the timeliness of a shipment is a MUST, we feel confident in calling on Southeastern Freight Lines' Excelerated service to get the job done."

You make the Commitment, Count on Southeastern to DELIVER!

Southeastern's Expedited Service

No one plans to have an emergency today, but if an emergency shipment happens on your watch, will you have your plan ready to implement?

Call Southeastern Freight Lines Expedited service at 866.733.5733 and we will schedule the fastest ground service possible. A driver or driver team will pickup the emergency shipment at your dock and will drive straight through to your customer's dock without stopping. Nothing else will be on the truck and no other stops will be made until your critical shipment is delivered.

Southeastern's expedited service coordinators will match your shipment to the smallest and most affordable sized equipment, will check for equipment availability and let you know the estimated arrival time for your shipment – even if it is across the country. Once the shipment is moving, we can provide real time shipment location with GPS/satellite tracking and delivery projection updates.

This service is available for:

- Any size shipment from 1 to 45,000 pounds
- Between any origin and destination in the United States
- Any time
- Critical shipments that require exclusive use service
- Hazmat and lift gate service is also an option

Call 866.733.5733 for equipment availability. With over 2,000 units in motion, we will search for the closest available driver. When you receive that emergency call, have your plan ready and call a Southeastern Freight Lines Expedited Facilitator. 866.733.5733

SOUTHEASTERN FREIGHT LINES

"I would like to take the time to commend Southeastern Freight Lines on the expedited service they provide for their customers. On several occasions, Proctor & Gamble has utilized this service to benefit our company. When a line is down at one of our other facilities we use this service to ship the freight. We have not been let down and will continue to use Southeastern's expedited service for all of our expedited needs."
